We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) as issued by International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB) of the International Federation of Accountants (IFAC). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report.

We are independent of the Project, of the DPI and of the AVHCs in accordance with the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (IESBA Code), and we have fulfilled out other ethical requirements in accordance with IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter - Completion of the Project

We draw your attention to Note 9 of these special purpose financial statements which disclose that the Project was completed as at the reporting date. Our opinion is not modified in this respect.

Emphasis of Matter- Cash Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 2 to the financial statements, which describes that financial statements are prepared in accordance with cash basis framework, as a result, they may not be suitable for another purposes. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Responsibilities of the Management for the Financial Statements

Management of the DPI is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the special purpose financial statements in accordance with IPSAS-Cash Basis issued by the International Public Sector Accounting Standards Board (IPSASB) of the IFAC and Financial Management Manual for World Bank Financed Investment Operations ("WB Guidelines"), and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of special purpose financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Special Purpose Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the special purpose financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is high level of assurance, but is not a guaranty that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements arise from fraud and error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these special purpose financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the special purpose financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the special purpose financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the special purpose financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with management regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Many VHC chairpersons want to participate in the elections of deputies to local keneshes, as they understand that they can bring positive changes to the life of their aimaks. Their attitude towards the local self-government bodies has changed radically. Now VHCs are more eager to seek help from the heads, and the heads are more willing to help VHCs.
- The project staff made more than 150 visits to pilot villages, where they provided consulting support to pilot VHCs and the local community.
- The local policy "My aimak healthy aimak" was developed by a working group consisting of VHCs and LSGs and approved both by the local community at rural gatherings and by the local kenesh in all 12 pilot municipalities.
- Pilot VHCs were able to mobilize local communities to participate in project activities. For example, in 25 pilot municipalities:
 - o 3,163 community members participated in the priority rural assessments in 2015
 - o 3,964 community members participated in the priority rural assessments in 2017
